

Volunteer Opportunity: Repack To Give Back

The week before Thanksgiving, City Harvest will host hundreds of volunteers for a one-of-a-kind experience. At this year's Repack To Give Back, volunteers will have the opportunity to fight hunger in a hands-on way .

During this five day event, teams of volunteers will pack thousands of holiday boxes filled with healthy food – enough to feed more than 20,000 hungry New Yorkers. Join City Harvest in the fight against hunger and help feed thousands of families this holiday season!

About The Event
