Foodie Fete

On April 30, City Harvest hosted its 36th annual gala to support its work to rescue good food that would otherwise go to waste and deliver it to New Yorkers in need. The 2019 gala honorees include Richard Gere, Golden Globe Award-winning actor and activist; Marc Granetz, MC, chief administrative officer of JPMorgan Chase and City Harvest board member, and his wife, Kris Granetz; and Michael White, Michelin-starred chef and owner of the Altamarea Group. The evening was hosted by Chrissy Teigen and Antoni Porowski, with a special performance by Emmy, Screen Actors Guild and Golden Globe Award-winning performer Darren Criss. The 2019 gala raised $4.1 million, enough to provide over 14 million meals for New Yorkers in need. —Kenny Chen
