

DAILY NEWS FOOD DRIVE

ATTENTION PARENTS: THE DAILY NEWS FOOD DRIVE IS HERE!
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22, 2019 – FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 2020

For 36 years, City Harvest and the Daily News have partnered to host the largest food drive in New York City. Each school can decide when they would like to participate between these dates. Last year, New York City students collected and donated more than 235,000 pounds of non-perishable food!

Your school's drive will run on these dates:

(Schools, please fill in before sending home to parents.)

Each participating school will be entered into the Kids Can Help Competition. The school in each borough that collects the most pounds between October 22 and January 17 will be awarded a prize! Donations for this competition must be received by January 31.

Nearly 1.2 million New Yorkers struggle with hunger, including one in five New York City children. This year City Harvest will rescue 64 million pounds of food and deliver it to hundreds of soup kitchens, food pantries and other community food programs throughout New York City. By participating, your child will help keep shelves stocked at food pantries and soup kitchens across the five boroughs.
