Donate to New York City's Largest Food Drive!

This year, the need for emergency food is at an all-time high as New Yorkers across the five boroughs continue to contend with the devastating economic fallout of the COVID-19 crisis.

You can help by participating in the 38th Annual Daily News Food Drive. Start your own canned food drive or run your drive online, and help keep City Harvest's trucks full of food for our neighbors in need.
