

HIGH HOLIDAYS FOOD DRIVE

August 31–October 2, 2026

Donate To City Harvest's High Holidays Food Drive

Right now, 1 in 4 Jewish families in New York City is struggling to make ends meet. You can help by participating in the High Holidays Food Drive, which helps provide much-needed food for kosher-observant families.

Start your food drive, either in-person or online, to help ensure shelves at food pantries and kosher community food programs are stocked across the city in time for the High Holidays.

Donated items require at least one of the following kosher certifications:

Most-needed kosher foods are shelf-stable, and include:

Beans Nuts Sardines Salmon Tuna Peanut Butter

For more information, visit
cityharvest.org/fooddrives

